

MUSEjar CALL FOR FEATURED ARTISTS

Contact: Laura Cott, Shop Manager
MUSEjar 17 Elm Street East Aurora, New York 14052
(716) 655-1015

East Aurora, NY – MUSEjar is excited to share a new Call for Work for our 2018 / 2019 Exhibition calendar. In the spirit of inspiring people and supporting Western NY Artisans, we love to feature the work of those in our community. During the winter months when we are forced to close the garage door of our open air shop, we make lemonade out of lemons by installing a gallery wall!

To submit work for review by MUSEjar, please email the following as a SINGLE pdf to musejarart@gmail.com with Subject: 2018/2019 Featured Artist

- Contact Information
- Artist's statement (250 word limit)
- Image checklist with title of the work, date, medium, and size.
- digital images as jpeg attachments or link to images on a website
- Social Media links

There is no deadline for submission, and proposals are accepted on an ongoing basis.

At MUSEjar our passion is living creatively, and we're here to inspire and support you in the pursuit. Art comes in endless forms, and we want you to find YOUR muse. We believe in the power of creating, and embrace its ability to shape a full and fun life.

Located in the historic village of East Aurora, just south of Buffalo, New York, we host wide variety of affordable workshops as well as private events for both children and adults. We also carry a curated selection of art supplies and beautifully designed and crafted goods.

For more information about the open call for artists or specific calls for work, please contact Shop Manager Laura Cott at musejarart@gmail.com.
