'THANK YOU' CITY-WIDE PUBLIC MURALS CALLS FOR WORK

WHO: Western New York Artist team up with Beau Fleuve Music & Arts

WHAT: City Wide Public Murals displaying Thanks to all the professionals who are fighting on the Frontlines against Covid-19

WHEN: MAY 1st 2020-AUGUST 1st 2020 (

A group of Western New York Artist have teamed up with Beau Fleuve Music & Arts to curate twelve thoughtful murals displayed throughout the City of Buffalo that will be Thanking all of the professionals who are on the Front lines fighting the COVID-19 | Coronavirus Pandemic. The murals will show Thanks to the professionals mixed with 'superhero-like' themes.

The goal of these murals is to aide our society with coping during these times with positive messages and Thanks to those who are fighting a great fight. We would like to offer the opportunity to other artist to join us in this initiative. Please see below on how you can be apart

Display & Curation: Murals will be created on a Omega Bond Panels (5' wide by 10' long) Omega Bond that will serve as temporary canvases. The dimension of the panels will allow artist to curate within their homes or studios. We are aiming to have the displayed as early as April, no later than May 1st. The mural display will take place from May 1st until August 1st 2020.

Here is a example of Omega Bond panels used for a Mural at BNMC parking facility at 134 High Street. <https://buffaloah.com/a/high/134/134.html>
