C. Stuart and Jane H. Hunt Art Gallery

The C. Stuart and Jane H. Hunt Gallery is taking submissions for its artist in residence program. 5-6 WNY artists will receive studio space free of rent, to support the creation of their work and career as an artist, in person and online. This residency will allow artists to enter a collaborative environment in partnership with the Buffalo Society of Artists (BSA) where they will have the opportunity to collaborate and exhibit work throughout the duration of their occupancy, and utilize Hunt Gallery platforms to sell their work.

Three artists chosen will receive a private studio space, three artists will occupy a shared space, for 16 weeks (approximately 4 months). These artists will be represented in-person and online on all Hunt Gallery platforms with the opportunity to exhibit and sell work.

The space will be open to collaborations and networking with other resident artists and networking with the Exhibiting BSA artists that will be on display in the C. Stuart and Jane H. Hunt Main Gallery during residency.

Resident artists will show work throughout their residency in the lower level gallery, while working together to develop and curate a group show to exhibit in the Main gallery at the end of their residency. At completion of the residency, artists will have the option to be represented online at www.huntartgallery.com (currently in construction) for a total of 12 months and continue to sell their work in consignment with Hunt Gallery.

Responsibilities of the artist:

- Take part in displaying work in shared space
- Supply inventory of work for online sale (at least 3 pieces, rotating)
- Work towards a 4 week exhibition in Main Gallery
- At least 8-10 hours per week spent working in the studio
- Attend and take part in Hunt Gallery events
- Take part in 1 Artist taught workshop or talk; of the artists choosing in collaboration with Gallery Manager
- Weekly meetings with guest speakers from BSA and local artists
